Istanbul -afternoon flight to Thessaloniki

After breakfast, transfer to Istanbul airport for our short flight to Thessaloniki. Arrival in Thessaloniki named after Alexander the Great's sister, and which figures prominently in the New Testament at which time this provincial capital was considered a world cultural center. This community was the center of Paul's activities in Northern Greece. It is where he preached and founded a church and to whom he wrote two epistles (Acts 17:1-9; 1 Thessalonians and 2 Thessalonians). Dinner & overnight.

Day 6: Tuesday

Thessaloniki- Philippi -Kavala.

This busy Roman colony boasted a great library and theater. In Philippi, Paul preached, established the first church in Europe, and was to whom he wrote one of his epistles while imprisoned in Rome (Acts 16:11-40; Philippians). It was in this area that Paul met Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth. She and her household accepted Christ and were baptized in the nearby river (Acts 16:11-15). Next, continue to Kavala, the ancient port of Neapolis (Acts 16:9-11). Dinner and overnight

Day 7: Wednesday

Thessaloniki-Veria-Kalambaka

This morning, stop in Veria (Beroea of the New Testament), where Paul and Silas were sent by friends after being accused of treason in Thessalonika (Acts 17:5-15). Visit the Bema, where Paul is said to have stood and preached the Gospel to the local community. Continue to Kalambaka, where we will have dinner and overnight.

Day 8: Thursday

Kalambaka -Athens

After breakfast, we will explore Kalambaka, where we will visit the unique hanging Byzantine monasteries from the Medieval centuries, and we will see one of them. Monks sought to be as far as possible from human daily life and as near as possible to God. Continue to Athens for Dinner and overnight

Breakfast boxes and transfer to Athens International Airport for departure flight Upon arrival at Rome airport, meet the tour manager after the baggage claim area. Transfer to the hotel for dinner and overnight

Day 14: Pompeii / Minturno / Foro Appio

Following breakfast, we embark on an archaeological journey through the ancient city of Pompeii. Buried under a layer of ashes and pyroclastic flow by the sudden eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 AD, the city shows Roman life frozen in the time of the apostles Peter and Paul. We walk through Pompeii's houses, shops, temples, squares, and streets, as well as the Lupanare (a first-century brothel) and the Suburban Baths, both displaying erotic frescoes and lending insight to Paul's outrage against the moral corruption of the Romans (Romans 1:26). We make our way north and rejoin the ancient Appian roadway, stopping at the partially-restored ruins of the Roman village of Minturno. We continue to Foro Appio and its Mansio Hotel, a small lodging situated in the same locale as an ancient Roman "posta" where travelers would rest before continuing their journey. On the property we see (and walk on!) remnants of the original Roman road, the Appian Way, upon which the apostle Paul traveled (Acts 28:14-15). Our evening concludes with dinner and overnight at the Hotel

Day 15: Three Fountains / Rome / Roman Forum / Colosseum

Departing Foro Appio after breakfast, we stop at the Abbey of the Three Fountains, the location of Paul's martyrdom. Tradition has it that three different springs gushed forth at each spot touched when Paul's head fell to the ground. We then continue on to the Eternal City of Rome. We begin our walking tour of Rome along the Via dei Fori Imperiali, the center road in Rome running in a straight line from the Piazza Venezia to the Colosseum. We observe many magnificent centerpieces of ancient Rome, including the ruins of the Imperial Fora of Rome. We visit the Forum of Trajan, the most splendid market of its time and the forerunner of our modern malls, offering all the Roman world had to offer. We see the Capitoline Hill (the religious and political center of ancient Rome) and the Piazza del Campidoglio, designed and rebuilt in the 16th century by Michelangelo. Here we step onto a natural terrace offering a stunning view of the valley of the Roman Forum and the Palatine Hill. Moving on, we go to the Mamertine Prison where Paul was held and wrote his "prison epistles". We also view the 3rd-century Arch of Constantine, commemorating Constantine's historic victory that gave rise to the legalization and later adoption of Christianity. Next we visit the Colosseum, a stage for the historical fights of the famous gladiators. In the evening we check into our hotel for dinner and overnight.

DAY 16 // Vatican City / Sistine Chapel / Saint Peter's Basilica / Saint Paul Outside the Walls / Catacombs

This morning we visit the Vatican Museum and Gallery (and if time permits Raphael's Rooms with their wonderful frescoes) the Sistine Chapel – where Michelangelo's recently restored masterpieces adorn the ceilings and walls – and Pincio Garden. We continue into St. Peter's Basilica and view Vatican City. This afternoon we visit St. Paul's Basilica Outside the Walls and the Church of St. Peter in Chains with the famed statue of Moses by Michelangelo. We visit the Old Appian Way and the Catacombs of St. Calixtus, then return to our hotel for dinner.
